Hello Panther Families!

Welcome back Panthers. As we enter the New Year, our students are working hard to make great academic gains. Below, I am posing with several students to celebrate their academic success.

Keep up the great work Mighty Panthers!

Warmest Regards,

Dr. Julie Cady

Panthers Athletics

VCS basketball and soccer seasons are in full swing. Girls 5th/6th grade and boys 5th grade basketball are undefeated. Kindergarten, 3rd/4th and 5th/6th grade soccer are also undefeated. Way to go Panthers!

100th Day Celebration

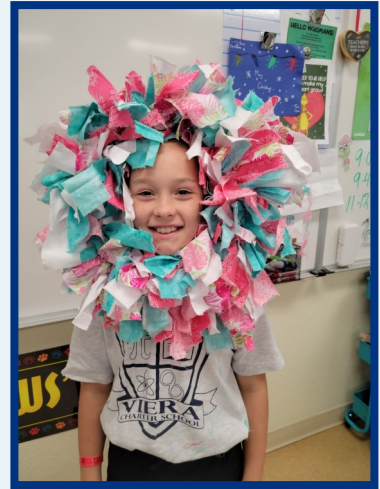

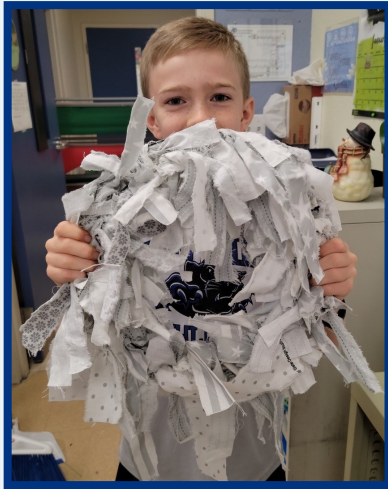

Kindergarten students had fun celebrating the 100th day of school. Teacher and students came dressed as their best 100 year old selves and enjoyed various activities.

4th Grade Gets Creative

Ms. Barnes 4th grade class made rag wreaths for holiday gifts. They used their own fabric and tied strips to a wreath frame to create beautiful wreaths.

What's Happening Around Campus

January held many fun new events at VCS. Our students had a space themed dress down day, PTSO purchased a new DRUMFIT™ for the PE department, and the Elementary Cheer Squad cheered on runners finishing the Children's Hunger Project 5K.
